Mr. Bergin,

I received your voice mail and your email. I will route your email and letter to the appropriate individual(s) for further review. I will not be discussing ten years of history although I do appreciate the extent to which you described your experiences and the fact that you have been a long time Charter customer. Please be assured that either myself, or someone at Charter will follow up with you about your concerns.

Mr. King,

I have attempted to fax a copy of the attached letter (Adobe Acrobat 7.0 file) to your office but have been unsuccessful in getting it to transmit. I hope this finds its way to you so that we may discuss its contents at your earliest convenience. If the attached PDF file is not allowed by e-mail policies, it is available at <http://www.bergin.us/charter.pdf>.

Sincerely,
Brian S. Bergin
